(3)	The increase for the entry level for all other categories of employee will be calculated by adding the annualised Consumer Price Index plus 2% (two per cent) to the salary rates for Year 1, with a minimum increase of 7.25% (seven and a quarter percent) for such entry levels.
(4)	The increase for all higher grades or levels for all categories will be calculated by adding the Rand value of the entry levels applicable to each category to the Year 1 salary levels for all such higher grades or levels.

MONTHLY SALARY RATES for Year 3 (with effect from 1 September 2011)
(1)	Area 4 will be abolished and incorporated into Area 3.
(2)	The increase for Security Officers Grade D in all areas will be calculated by adding the annualised Consumer Price Index plus 2% (two per cent) to the Grade D salary rates for Year 2, with a minimum increase of 7% (seven percent) for such entry levels.
(3)	The increase for the entry level for all other categories of employee will be calculated by adding the annualised Consumer Price Index plus 2% (two per cent) to the salary rates for Year 2.
(4)	The increase for all higher grades or levels for all categories will be calculated by adding the Rand value of the entry levels applicable to each category to the Year 2 salary levels for all such higher grades or levels.

Note to Year 2 and Year 3 tables, above:

The term "entry level" refers to the lowest remuneration level in each specified category of employee referred to in the salary tables, as for Year 1.

(c) Casual employees:

An employer shall pay a casual employee in respect of each hour or part of an hour (excluding overtime) worked by the employee on any day other than a paid holiday or a Sunday not less than the hourly wage prescribed in sub clause 3 (1)(b) for an ordinary employee who in the same area performs the same class of work as the casual employee is required to do, plus 15 percent, or not less than the hourly wage or hourly equivalent of the wage actually being paid to the ordinary employee, whichever is the greater amount.

Provided that -

- (i) for the purposes of this paragraph the expression "the ordinary employee" means the employee who performs the particular class of work in the employer's full-time employ and who is being paid the lowest salary for that class of work;
- (ii) where the employer requires the casual employee –
 - (aa) to perform the work of a class of employee for whom salaries on a rising scale are prescribed, the expression "hourly wage" shall mean the hourly wage prescribed for a qualified employee of that class; and
 - (ab) to work for a period of less than four hours on any day, the employee shall be deemed to have worked four hours and remunerated accordingly.

(d) Ship security officers and Cargo security officers:

A ship security officer and a cargo security officer shall be paid at least R4.83 for each hour or part of an hour of employment.

(2) Basis of contract:

For the purposes of this clause, the contract of employment of an employee, other than a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer, shall be on a weekly basis.

(3) Differential salary:

An employer who requires or permits a member of one class of employee to perform for longer than one hour on any day, either in addition to the employee's own work or in substitution therefore, work of another class for which -

- (a) Salary is higher than that of the employee's own class is prescribed in sub clause (1), shall pay to such employee in respect of that day not less than the daily wage calculated at the higher rate; or
- (b) a rising scale of remuneration resulting in a wage higher than that of the employee's own class as prescribed in sub-clause (1), shall pay to such employee in respect of that day not less than the daily salary calculated on the notch in the rising scale immediately above the salary which the employee was receiving for the employee's ordinary work: provided that -
 - (aa) this sub clause shall not apply where the difference between the classes in terms of sub clause (1) is based on experience; and
 - (ab) unless expressly otherwise provided in a written contract between the employer and employee, nothing in this determination shall be so construed as to preclude an employer from requiring an employee to perform work of another class for which class the same or a lower salary is prescribed for such an employee.

(4) Calculation of salary

The salary, overtime and Sunday time of an employee, other than a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer, shall be calculated on a monthly basis and an employee shall be remunerated accordingly.

- (a) The monthly salary of an employee shall be as stipulated in the relevant column of the tables in sub clause 3(1)(b).
- (b) Any hours in excess of the maximum daily or weekly ordinary hours or, if applicable, average weekly ordinary hours, as well as any hours in respect of work performed on a Sunday or public holiday, shall be calculated by using the "hourly equivalent" figure in the relevant column of the table in sub clause 3(1)(b), applying the relevant premium.
- (c) The "hourly equivalent" figure shall not be used to calculate the employee's remuneration in respect of ordinary hours worked, i.e., the employee's basic salary.

(5) Night shift allowance:

If at least half of the shift ordinarily falls between the hours of 18:00 on one day and 06:00 the next day that employee will be entitled to and shall receive an allowance in respect of each night shift worked.

- (a) The night shift allowance for the first year of effectiveness of this determination (i.e., from 1 September 2009) shall be R 4.00 per shift.
- (b) The night shift allowance for the second and third years of effectiveness of this determination (i.e., from 1 September 2010) shall be R 5.00 per shift.

(6) Special allowances

The following allowances shall be paid to each employee performing the following duties, on condition that no employee shall be entitled to accumulate more than any two of these special allowances in respect of any shift worked -

- (a) Mobile supervisors: R 5.50 per shift
- (b) Armed security officer: R 5.50 per shift
- (c) Armed response officer: R 5.50 per shift
- (d) National key point officer: R 5.50 per shift
- (e) Control Centre Operator: R 5.50 per shift

4. PAYMENT OF REMUNERATION

- (1) For employees, other than casual employees, ship security officers and cargo security officers, an employer must pay to an employee any remuneration –
 - (a) in South African currency;
 - (b) daily, weekly, fortnightly or monthly; and
 - (c) in cash, by cheque or by direct deposit in an account designated by the employee.
- (2) Any remuneration paid by cheque or by cash must be given to each employee –
 - (a) during the ordinary hours of work;
 - (b) within 15 minutes thereafter on the usual pay-day of the establishment for such employee, or
 - (c) at such time as may have been agreed upon between such employee and the employer, which time shall fall during the ordinary hours of work of the establishment, but not later than 48 hours after the usual pay-day, or
 - (d) within 48 hours of termination of employment, weekends and public holidays excluded.
- (3) Such amount shall be contained in a sealed envelope.
- (4) An employer must give an employee a payslip on which the following information is included in writing on each day the employee is paid –
 - (a) the employer's name and address;
 - (b) the employee's name or his number on the payroll, the employee's job category and grade;
 - (c) the period for which payment is made;
 - (d) the amount and purpose of any deductions made from the remuneration;
 - (e) the nett amount paid to the employee;
 - (f) the employee's hourly rate of pay and overtime rate;
 - (g) the number of ordinary hours worked by the employee;
 - (h) the number of overtime hours worked by the employee;
 - (i) the number of hours worked by the employee on a Sunday during that period;
 - (j) the number of hours worked by an employee on a public holiday during that period; and
 - (k) the details of any other remuneration arising out of the employee's employment contract or in terms of an agreement to average working time in terms of the BCEA No 75 of 1997.
- (5) The written information required in terms of sub clause (4) must be given to each employee at the workplace or at a place agreed to by the employee and such payslip on which these particulars are recorded or such statement shall become the property of the employee:
Provided that –
 - (a) the particulars prescribed above may be recorded on a payslip or such statement in code which shall be fully set out and explained in an accompanying notice or in a notice kept posted in some conspicuous place in the establishment, accessible to all employees affected thereby;
 - (b) the amount due to the employee may be paid into the employee's nominated building society or bank account, by manual or electronic funds transfer, by the employer, who shall, however, deliver to the employee the aforementioned statement, by hand or electronically.
- (6) Casual employees, ship security officers and cargo security officers:
An employer shall pay a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer the remuneration due to the employee in cash on completion of each day's work: Provided that the employer may, at the request of such employee, pay the employee the remuneration at the end of that week or month, by mutual agreement.
- (7) Premiums:
Subject to any other law, no payment by or on behalf of an employee shall be accepted by an employer, either directly or indirectly, in respect of the employment or training of that employee and no employer shall require an employee to –
 - (a) repay any portion of the remuneration which was due to that employee; or
 - (b) acknowledge receipt of an amount greater than the remuneration actually paid to the employee.
- (8) Purchase of goods:
An employer shall not require an employee to purchase any goods from the employer or from any shop, place or person nominated by the employer.

(9) Accommodation, meals and rations and payment in kind:

An employer shall not, as a condition of employment, require an employee to accept accommodation, meals or rations from the employer or from any person or at any place nominated by the employer. An employer shall not, as a condition of employment, require an employee to receive any in kind form of payment in lieu of salaries or a part thereof.

(10) Spares or relievers

If an employee works as a "spare" or "reliever", the employee will be employed on a full time basis, at the rate for the relevant category of employment, and the employer must pay the employee the amount that the employee would ordinarily have earned even if that employee had not been placed at a post.

(11) Deductions:

An employer shall not levy any fines against an employee nor make any deductions from the employee's remuneration other than the following –

- (a) subject to clause 4(11)(c), by agreement with the employee in writing in respect of a debt specified in the agreement, or
- (b) A deduction of any amount which an employer by law or order of any competent court is required or permitted to make;
- (c) to reimburse the employer for loss or damage only if –
 - (i) the loss or damage occurred in the course of employment and was due to the fault of the employee,
 - (ii) the employer has followed a fair procedure and has given the employee a reasonable opportunity to show why the deduction should not be made,
 - (iii) the total amount of the debt does not exceed the actual amount of the loss or damage, and
 - (iv) the total monthly deductions from the employee's remuneration in terms of this sub clause do not exceed one quarter of the employee's gross monthly remuneration in money.
- (d) With the written consent of the employee, a deduction for any medical, insurance, savings, provident or pension fund, or in respect of subscriptions to a trade union;
- (e) Whenever the ordinary hours of work are reduced because of short time, a deduction not exceeding the amount of the employee's (other than a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer's) hourly wage in respect of each hour of such reduction:

Provided that –

 - (i) such deduction shall not exceed one third of the employee's salary, irrespective of the number of hours by which the ordinary hours of work are thus reduced;
 - (ii) no deduction shall be made in the case of short time arising from slackness of business, unless the employer has given an employee notice on the previous working day of the employer's intention to reduce the ordinary hours of work;
 - (iii) no deduction shall be made in the case of short time owing to a breakdown of plant or machinery or a breakdown or threatened breakdown of buildings, in respect of the first hour not worked, unless the employer has given an employee notice on the previous day that no work will be available.
- (f) With the written consent of an employee, a deduction towards the repayment of any amount loaned or advanced to the employee by the employer.

Provided that –

 - (i) any such deduction shall not exceed one third of the total remuneration due to the employee on the payday concerned;
 - (ii) no such deduction shall be made in respect of any period during which the employee's salary is reduced in terms of sub clause 11(e);

Sub clause 6(11)(f)(i) and (ii) shall not apply where the contract of employment is terminated.

- (g) A deduction in accordance with the provisions of clause 9(9); and

- (h) any other deduction made at the written request of the employee and with the agreement of the employer: Provided that if the purpose of such deduction is the payment of any amount to any banking institution, building society, insurance business, registered financial institution, local authority, the State or any third party, the employer shall make such payment to such institution in accordance with the request of the employee within the timeframe indicated in such request, or where no timeframe is indicated, within one week.

5. ORDINARY HOURS OF WORK, OVERTIME AND PAYMENT FOR OVERTIME

- (1) An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work more ordinary hours of work than provided for from the date of implementation of this determination –
- (a) a security officer, -
 - (i) 48 in any week; and
 - (ii) Subject to sub-paragraph (i) 12 on any day.
 - (b) a ship security officer or cargo security officer; 12 on any day.
 - (c) Any other category of employee; -
 - (i) 45 in any week; and
 - (ii) subject to sub-paragraph (i) , in the case of an employee who normally works on –
 - (aa) not more than five days in a week, 9 on any day; and
 - (ab) more than five days in a week, 8 on any day.
- (2) Averaging of Working Hours:
Despite sub clause (1), the ordinary hours of work and overtime of an employee may be averaged over a period of up to four months, in terms of a written agreement.
- (a) An employer may not require or permit an employee who is a security officer to work more than –
 - (i) an average of 48 ordinary hours of work in a week over the agreed period; and
 - (ii) an average of ten hours overtime in a week over the agreed period
 - (b) Any employee whose hours are averaged in terms hereof must be paid at the premium hourly rate in respect of all work performed on a Sunday or public holiday, as per clauses 7 and 8.
 - (c) Any employee whose hours are averaged in terms hereof will still take, and the employer shall grant, a weekly free period of at least 36 hours or a fortnightly free period of at least 60 hours in terms of sub clause (10).
- (3) Compressed working week :
An agreement in writing may require or permit an employee to work up to 12 hours in a day, without receiving overtime pay. No such agreement may require or permit an employee to work –
- (a) more than 48 ordinary hours in any week, with the exception of the arrangements in respect of security officers in terms of sub clauses (1)(a);
 - (b) more than 10 hours overtime in any week; or
 - (c) on more than five days in any week.
- (4) Meal intervals:
- (a) An employer must give an employee who works continuously for more than five hours a meal interval of at least one continuous hour.
 - (b) During a meal interval an employee may be required or permitted only duties that cannot be left unattended and cannot be performed by another employee.
 - (c) An employee must be remunerated –
 - (i) for a meal interval in which the employee is required to work or is required to be available for work; and
 - (ii) For any portion of a meal interval that is in excess of 75 minutes, unless the employee lives on the premises at which the workplace is situated.
 - (d) For the purposes of sub clause (a), work is continuous unless it is interrupted by an interval of at least 30 minutes.
 - (e) An agreement in writing may –
 - (i) reduce the meal interval to not less than 30 minutes;
 - (ii) Dispense with a meal interval for an employee who works fewer than six hours.
 - (f) No deduction in respect of a meal interval shall reduce the employee's monthly salary, as specified in this determination, or any amendment thereto.

(5) Rest intervals:

An employer shall grant to each employee, other than a driver, a security officer, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer, a rest period of not less than 15 minutes as practicable in the middle of the first and second work periods of the day, and during which intervals such employee shall not be required or permitted to perform any work, and such interval shall be deemed to be part of the ordinary hours of work of such employee.

(6) Hours of work to be consecutive:

Save as provided in sub clauses (4) and (5), all hours of work of an employee, other than a ship security officer or a cargo security officer, on any day shall be consecutive.

(7) Night Work:

- (a) An employer may only require or permit an employee to perform night work if –
 - (i) the employee is compensated by the payment of an allowance, as per clause 3(5); and
 - (ii) public or other transportation is available between the employee's place of residence and the workplace at the commencement and conclusion of the employee's shift.
- (b) An employer who requires an employee to perform work on a regular basis after 23:00 and before 06:00 the next day must inform the employee in writing, or orally, if the employee is not able to understand a written communication, in a language that the employee understands –
 - (i) of any health and safety hazards associated with the work that the employee is required to perform; and
 - (ii) of the employee's right to undergo a medical examination in terms of sub clause (7)(c).
- (c) At the request of the employee, enable the employee to undergo a medical examination, for the account of the employer, concerning those hazards -
 - (i) before the employee starts, or within a reasonable period of the employee starting, such work; and
 - (ii) at appropriate intervals while the employee continues to perform such work; and
- (d) Transfer the employee to suitable day work within a reasonable time if –
 - (i) the employee suffers from a health condition associated with the performance of night work; and
 - (ii) if it is practicable for the employer to do so.
- (e) For the purposes of sub clause (7)(b), an employee works on a regular basis if the employee works for a period of longer than one hour after 23:00 and before 06:00 at least five times per month or fifty times per year.

(8) Limitation of overtime:

The need to work overtime shall be at the sole discretion of the employer and an employer shall not require or permit an employee to work overtime otherwise than in terms of an agreement concluded by the employer with the employee and such overtime shall not exceed –

- (a) 3 hours on any day; or
- (b) 10 hours in any week.

Provided that the weekly limitation may increase to 12 hours in terms of a written agreement between the employer and employee.

(9) Payment for overtime:

An employer shall pay an employee who works overtime, at a rate of not less than one and a half times the employee's hourly equivalent wage in respect of the total overtime period so worked by such employee.

(10) Rest periods:

- (a) An employer must allow an employee –
 - (i) a daily rest period of at least 12 consecutive hours between the normal ending and recommencing work; and
 - (ii) a weekly rest period of at least 36 consecutive hours.
- (b) A daily rest period in terms of sub clause (10)(a) may, by written agreement, be reduced to 10 hours for an employee –
 - (i) who lives on the premises at which the workplace is situated; and
 - (ii) whose meal interval lasts for at least three hours.
- (c) Despite sub clause (10)(a)(ii), an agreement in writing may provide for –
 - (i) a rest period of at least 60 consecutive hours every two weeks; or
 - (ii) an employee's weekly rest period to be reduced by up to eight hours in any week; if the rest period in the following week is extended equivalently.

(11) Exceptions:

- (a) Sub clauses (4), (5), (6) and (8) shall not apply to an employee while an employee is engaged in emergency work.
- (b) Sub clause (4) shall not apply to an employee wholly or mainly engaged in the tending, feeding or cleaning of animals.

6. ANNUAL BONUS

- (1) An employer shall pay to every security officer, for each month that the employee was paid or entitled to be paid in respect of each completed 12 months of service with such employer, an annual bonus, subject to the conditions of sub clauses (2) and (3), below calculated as follows:

$$\frac{A \times B}{12}$$

Where

- A = Security officer's hourly equivalent rate of pay
- B = The actual ordinary hours worked by the employee, or the employee was entitled to be paid for, for the month.

Provided that –

- (i) only hours of absence not authorised by the employer shall be deducted from the monthly hours in determining the figure "B" in the above formula, and
 - (i) Periods of authorised absence shall be included when determining the actual hours worked by an employee for calculating the bonus.
 - (ii) any employee who is scheduled to perform duties as a spare and is not utilised for that shift shall suffer no detriment for the duration of the shift in the accumulation of his/her annual bonus.
- (2) The annual bonus shall be paid on the anniversary of the security officer's date of employment with the employer unless the employer and a representative trade union and/or the security officer mutually agree in writing upon another date.
- (3) The annual bonus shall be calculated monthly as per sub clause (1) at the ordinary salary rate earned during each relevant month and accumulated and paid to the employee officer as per sub clause (2).
- (4) In the event that the employee's contract of employment ends before the end of any subsequent 12 month cycle with the same employer for any reason other than resignation or dismissal for misconduct, poor performance not related to incapacity for ill health, the employee must receive a prorated share of the bonus for the period of the year that he/she has worked.

7. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

- (1) An employer may not require an employee to work on a public holiday except in accordance with an agreement.
- (2) If a public holiday falls on a day on which an employee would ordinarily work, an employer must pay –
- (a) an employee who does not work on the public holiday, at least the salary that the employee would ordinarily have received for work on that day;
 - (b) an employee who does work on the public holiday:
 - (i) at least double the amount referred to in (a)
 - (ii) if it is greater the amount referred to in paragraph (a) plus the amount earned by the employee for the time worked on that day
- (3) If an employee works on a public holiday on which the employee would not ordinarily work, the employer must pay that employee an amount equal to double the employee's ordinary salary for the period worked.
- (4) An employer must pay an employee for a public holiday on the employee's usual payday.
- (5) If a shift worked by an employee falls on a public holiday and another day, the whole shift is deemed to have been worked on the public holiday, but if the greater portion of the shift was worked on the other day, the whole shift is deemed to have been worked on the other day.

- (6) If the public holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday will be deemed to be the public holiday in lieu of the Sunday. The Sunday shall be remunerated at the relevant premium payment for that day.
- (7) In terms of Section 2(2) of the Public Holidays Act (Act 36 of 1994), a public holiday is exchangeable for any other that is fixed by agreement or agreed to between the employer and the employee.
- (8) Compensation to a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer for work on a public holiday:
 - (a) Whenever a casual employee works on a public holiday, the employer shall pay the employee in respect of the total period worked by the employee on such day an amount calculated at a rate of not less than double the hourly wage prescribed for a full-time employee in the same area who performs the same class of work as the casual employee is required to do.
Provided that where the employer requires a casual employee to –
 - (i) perform the work of a class of employee for whom salaries on a rising scale are prescribed, the expression "hourly wage" shall mean the hourly wage for a qualified employee of that class as calculated in term of clause 3(4);
 - (ii) work for less than four hours on such a day, an employee shall be deemed to have worked for four hours.
 - (b) Whenever a ship security officer or a cargo security officer works on a public holiday, an employer shall pay the employee in respect of the total period worked by the employee on such day an amount calculated at a rate of not less than double the hourly equivalent wage.

8. COMPENSATION FOR WORK ON A SUNDAY

- (1) An employer must pay an employee who works on a Sunday at double the employee's salary for each hour worked, unless the employee ordinarily works on a Sunday, in which case the employer must pay the employee at one and one and a half times the employee's salary for each hour worked.
- (2) If an employee works less than the employee's ordinary shift on a Sunday and the payment that the employee is entitled to in terms of sub clause (1) is less than the employee's ordinary daily salary, the employer must pay the employee the employee's ordinary daily salary.
- (3) Despite sub clauses (1) and (2), an agreement may permit an employer to grant an employee who works on a Sunday paid time off equivalent to the difference in value between the pay received by the employee for working on the Sunday and the pay that the employee is entitled to in terms of sub clauses (1) and (2),
- (4) An employer must grant paid time off in terms of sub clause (3) within one month of the employee becoming entitled to it.
- (5) An agreement in writing may increase the period contemplated by sub clause (4) to 12 months.
- (6) Compensation to a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer for work on a Sunday:
 - (a) Whenever a casual employee works on a Sunday, the employer shall pay the employee in respect of the total period worked by the employee on such day an amount calculated at a rate of not less than double the hourly wage prescribed for a full-time employee in the same area who performs the same class of work as the casual employee is required to do.
Provided that where the employer requires a casual employee -
 - (i) to perform the work of a class of employee for whom salaries on a rising scale is prescribed, the expression "hourly wage" shall mean the hourly equivalent for a qualified employee of that class as calculated in term of clause 3(4);
 - (ii) to work for less than four hours on such a day, an employee shall be deemed to have worked for four hours.
 - (b) Whenever a ship security officer or a cargo security officer works on a Sunday, an employer shall pay the employee in respect of the total period worked by the employee on such day an amount calculated at a rate of not less than double the hourly equivalent wage.

(7) Payment :

The remuneration payable in terms of this clause to an employee, other than a casual employee, a ship security officer or a cargo security officer, shall be paid to the employee not later than the normal pay-day immediately after the day in respect of which such remuneration is payable.

9. ANNUAL LEAVE

- (1) In this clause "annual leave cycle" means the period of 12 months employment with the same employer immediately following –
 - (a) an employee's commencement of employment; or
 - (b) the completion of that employee's prior leave cycle.
- (2) The employer must grant an employee at least –
 - (a) 21 consecutive days annual leave paid in accordance with sub clause (14) below and as explained in the note hereunder, in respect of each annual leave cycle; or
 - (b) by agreement, one day of annual leave on full remuneration for every 17 days on which the employee worked or was entitled to be paid; or
 - (c) by agreement, one hour of annual leave on full remuneration for every 17 hours on which the employee worked or was entitled to be paid.
- (3) The leave entitlement for any employee who has completed three years uninterrupted employment with the same employer, calculated as from the date of effectiveness of this determination, shall be increased to by three additional days paid annual leave.
- (4) An employee is entitled to take leave accumulated in an annual leave cycle, in terms of sub clause (2), on consecutive days.
- (5) An employer must grant, and an employee must take, annual leave not later than six months after the end of the annual leave cycle.
- (6) An employer may not require or permit an employee to take annual leave during –
 - (a) any other period of leave to which an employee is entitled in terms of this determination; or
 - (b) any period of notice of termination of employment.
- (7) Despite sub clause (6), an employer must permit an employee, at the employee's written request, to take paid leave during a period of unpaid leave.
- (8) An employer must pay an employee leave pay on the employee's usual payday.
- (9) An employer may reduce an employee's entitlement to annual leave by the number of days of occasional leave, calculated at the employee's rate of remuneration, granted to the employee at the employee's request during that leave cycle.
- (10) An employer must grant an employee an additional day of paid leave if a public holiday falls on a day during an employee's annual leave on which the employee would ordinarily have worked.
- (11) An employer may not require or permit an employee to work for the employer during any period of annual leave.
- (12) Annual leave must be taken –
 - (a) in accordance with an agreement between the employer and the employee; or
 - (b) if there is no agreement in terms of sub clause (12)(a), at a time determined by the employer in accordance with this section.
- (13) An employer may not pay an employee instead of granting paid leave in terms of this clause, except –
 - (a) upon termination of employment; and
 - (b) in accordance with clause 23(9).
- (14) An employer must pay an employee leave pay at least equivalent to the ordinary salary payable to the employee for the ordinary hours the employee would normally have worked during the period of annual leave, calculated –
 - (a) at the employee's rate of remuneration immediately before the beginning of the period of annual leave.

- (15) An employer must pay an employee leave pay -
 - (a) before the beginning of the period of leave; or
 - (b) by agreement, on the employee's usual pay day.
- (16) An employee who has become entitled to a period of leave prescribed in sub clause (1), read with sub clause (9), and whose employment terminates before such leave has been granted and been taken, shall, upon such termination be paid the amount an employee would have received, in respect of the leave, had the leave been granted to the employee and taken by the employee as at the date of the termination, calculated in terms of sub clause (2).

10. SICK LEAVE

- (1) In this clause "sick leave cycle means the period of 36 months uninterrupted employment with the same employer immediately following -
 - (a) an employee's commencement of employment; or
 - (b) the completion of that employee's prior sick leave cycle.
- (2) During every sick leave cycle an employee is entitled to an amount of paid sick leave equal to the number of days the employee would normally work during a period of six weeks.
- (3) Despite sub clause (2), during the first six months of employment, an employee is entitled to one day's paid sick leave for every 26 ordinary days worked.
- (4) During an employee's first sick leave cycle an employer may reduce the employee's sick leave entitlement to sick leave in terms of sub clause (2), by the number of days sick leave taken in terms of sub clause (3).
- (5) Subject to clause 10A, an employer must pay an employee for a day's sick leave –
 - (a) the ordinary salary the employee would have received, excluding any allowances; and
 - (b) on the employee's usual pay day.
- (6) An agreement may reduce the pay to which an employee is entitled in respect of any day's absence in terms of this section if –
 - (a) the number of days of paid sick leave is increased at least commensurately with any reduction in the daily amount of sick pay; and
 - (b) the employee's entitlement to pay –
